

When is the next election?
 Early April! For dates and more information, check the town website:

Or you can use burlington.org for issues like permits

Who do I contact about a problem?
 The Burlington Buzz has a great breakdown of all the departments and what they do:

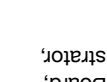

Why should I care?
 Nope! Municipal positions in MA are non-partisan, meaning candidates don't run as Democrats or Republicans
 This stuff impacts your daily life WAY more than state or national policies. And the best part is, you can have more of an impact on it!

Do town elections have political parties?
 FAQ

And go vote!

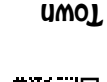

"If nothing else, make it a point to vote in your local election. It affects your day to day life far more than any other election."

Mike Espejo
 Burlington Select Board Chair

Who's our mayor?
 We don't have one! We have a Select Board, Town Meeting Members, Town Administrator, and Town Clerk

Can regular residents vote at Town Meeting?
 No (although you can attend!). Burlington has a representative Town Meeting, so residents vote for Town Meeting Members, who cast votes at Town Meeting

Which precinct am I?
 Look up your precinct here!
 Your Town Meeting Members are elected by precinct, and you also use it to vote

Where can I stream meetings?
 They're all on YouTube, thanks to BCAT! Check out the BCAT Government channel:

FAQ

How Burlington Town Government Works

Clyde the Mini Horse
 Resident of Chip Farms, Bedford
 Star of the Burlington Palm Sunday Parade

Serve on a Committee!
 There are a ton of volunteer positions. Email Bill Beyer at beyerbill@comcast.net to find the right fit!

Run for Office!
 Don't like how something is run? Change it! Run for office!
 Most boards allow public comment, or you can stream on BCAT!

Attend Meetings!
 Town Clerk email: jpriest@burlington.org

Contact your reps!
 Town Meeting Members:
 Select Board email: selectboard@burlington.org

Things How Residents can Influence

